The Lunar Calendar

Dedicated to the Goddess in Her Many Guises

It's too late to stop now!!

Letters to Luna

Dear Friends of the Moon and Luna Press,

The spring rains fell heavily, leaving Luna Press four feet under the floodwaters that swept through Massachusetts.

Computers, printers, past edition calendars and post cards, file cabinets, books and many moons of records and mementos are gone. Gone.

The office is now unusable and Luna Press must find a new home yet again.

The '11 Lunar Calendar is now in production from the kitchen table of Nancy FW Passmore, founder, publisher and creative editor.

With your help, this 35th Annual Lunar Calendar will be published, as sure as the Moon will rise in the night sky.

Thanks for all your efforts in generating this wonderful calendar. A friend introduced me to it as she would gift me one each winter solstice. Then when she did not any more, I just had to get one for myself — I was hooked!! Beautiful design, artwork & poems. I love it!

Blessings,
— T. B., Reynoldsville, PA

The Lunar Calendar brings me such joy. It is such a beautiful creation, so much more than just a calendar it is just a piece of joy."

— J.D., Oxnard, CA

To Luna Press: Thank you — always!

— J.J., San Francisco, CA

This gift of money seems pale in comparison with the greater gifts of knowledge and spirit conveyed by you at The Luna Press, and yet we hope that it will prove useful. The Lunar Calendar has added meaning to our lives, and for this we thank you, and The Goddess.

BLESSED BE.
— Anonymous, San Francisco, CA

I was sorry to see images of the flood. May you be flooded with generosity and good wishes for the future.

— W.R., Somerville, MA

Thank you for The Lunar Calendar to brighten my life. I hope your days are more peaceful, dry, and happy.

Moon Beam Blessings!
— J.D., Oxnard, CA

You have been constantly in my heart and mind ever since I heard about your flood — Now that the waters are receding I feel that all will be well. Take heart! Love,

— C.J., Rhinebeck, NY

Dear Luna Press,
Five years ago my mother passed away. Grieving her death and growing in her absence has been a journey knotted with sorrow, discovery, and rebirth. In the beginning much of my grounding and perspective on my self was lost or simply faded from recognition.

As I rediscovered life, I relied on the things I knew to be stable and constant: The Lunar Mother has pulled me through this growth and discovery. Were it not for The Lunar Calendar greeting me every morning, finding stability in my grieving would have been impossible! Thank you for connecting us all with the spirit of our dear Moon.

— With Warm Regards,
H.N., Brooklyn, NY

Know that my thoughts are with you and Luna Press. Take gentle care.

Serenity always.
— S.C., Long Beach Township, NJ

we learned that the moon was flooded. we wondered what our tides would do now

I'm glad my words could be shared in the brochure. I took so many others to my heart. I, and many others, eagerly await the next edition.

We have been warned this Year of the Tiger is something else: "year of living dangerously", "a turbulent time", "abandon logic, planning and rely on intuition", "sit tight and hope for the best as the storm rises"

— Dee Jonathan,
SIMPLY CHINESE ASTROLOGY

And then Emily Dickenson:
"Hope is the thing with feathers
That perches in the soul,
And sings the tune without the words,
And never stops at all ..."

And then there are the times we just bail madly to keep our moon boats afloat (cf Jamie Hogan).

All Love, Dear Ones
